

Cockles and Mussels 3 beats to the bar

C//|///|G7//|C/

[C] In Dublin's Fair City where [G7] girls are so pretty,
 I [C] first set my eyes on sweet [G7] Molly Malone.
 As she [C] wheeled her wheelbarrow,
 Through [G7] streets broad and narrow
 Crying, [C] "Cockles and mussels, [G7] alive, alive [C] oh"

Chorus: [C] Alive, alive oh, [G7] alive, alive oh,
 Crying [C] "Cockles and Mussels, [G7] alive, alive [C] oh"

[C] Well she was a fishmonger and [G7] sure 'twas no wonder
 For [C] so were her father and [G7] mother before.
 And they [C] both wheeled their barrows,
 Through [G7] streets broad and narrow,
 Crying [C] "Cockles and Mussels, [G7] alive, alive [C] oh.

Repeat chorus

[C] She died of a fever, which [G7] no-one could save her.
 And [C] that was the end of sweet [G7] Molly Malone
 Now her [C] ghost wheels her barrow,
 Through [G7] streets broad and narrow,
 Crying [C] "Cockles and Mussels, [G7] alive, alive [C] oh.

Chorus: [C] Alive, alive oh, [G7] alive, alive oh,
 Crying [C] "Cockles and Mussels, [G7] alive, alive [C] oh"
