Little Brown Jug

Joseph Eastburn Winner 1869
Drinking song/Folk song

Intro: G7 2 3 4 | C 2 3 4 beats to bar

My wife and I we live [F] all alone
In a [G7] little log hut we [C] call our own.
She loves gin and [F] I love rum,
And [G7] don't we have a [C] lot of fun!

CHORUS: Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee!
Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee.

When I go toiling [F] on the farm,
I [G7] take the little jug [C] under my arm.
Place it under a [F] shady tree,
[G7] Little brown jug 'tis [C] you and me.

CHORUS: Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee!
Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee.

[C] 'Tis you that makes me [F] friends and foes,
'Tis [G7] you that makes me [C] wear old clothes.
But [C] seeing you're so [F] near my nose,
[G7] Tip her up and [C] down she goes.

CHORUS: Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee!
Ha, ha, ha, [F] you and me,
[G7] Little brown jug don't [C] I love thee.
